

I'm going to Lincoln Center with my family!
Big Umbrella Kickoff and Brady Rymer Concert
Saturday, April 14th at 10:30am

First, I'm going to the David Rubenstein Atrium to see the Big Umbrella Festival.

I can sit in the chairs, on the carpet in front of the stage, and on benches. People can also stand in the back or the side of the room.

If I get there early, I can engage in activities that will be given out at the Atrium.

If I need headphones, I can borrow them from the staff.

Next, someone will go on stage and speak for a few minutes about the Big Umbrella Festival. To start the festival, the host will open an umbrella.

Then, at 11:00am, the concert will begin. I will be seeing Brady Rymer and the Little Band That Could. Brady Rymer sings and plays guitar with his band.

I can sing, clap or groove along if I want to!

Note for adults:

There is a restroom located in the back by the guest services desk. There are 3 more on the Second Floor. To use them, get a key from the desk and take the elevator up to 2.

I'm going to Lincoln Center with my family!

Lincoln Center is the largest performing arts center in the world and people come here from many different places to see concerts, plays, and dance.

David Rubenstein Atrium  A photograph of the David Rubenstein Atrium, showing a long, brightly lit hallway with a red carpet and modern architecture.	Lincoln Center  A photograph of the Lincoln Center fountain, a large circular fountain with water spraying upwards, surrounded by people.	Umbrella  A photograph of a colorful beach umbrella with segments in blue, green, yellow, and red.
Brady Rymer and the Little Band That Could  A photograph of the band Brady Rymer and the Little Band That Could, consisting of five people playing various instruments.	Brady Rymer  A photograph of Brady Rymer, a man with short hair, wearing a red jacket and a blue polka-dot shirt, laughing.	Accordion  A photograph of a red and black accordion.
Tambourine  A photograph of a black tambourine with gold jingles.	Guitar  A photograph of an acoustic guitar.	Applause  A line drawing of two hands clapping.