

I'm going to Lincoln Center with my family!

Lincoln Center is the largest performing arts center in the world and people come here from many different places to see concerts, plays, and dance.

First, I'm going to the Rose Building to pick up my ticket at the Box Office. If I need earplugs or headphones, I can borrow them.

After I go through the turnstiles, I'll take the elevator to the 7th Floor.

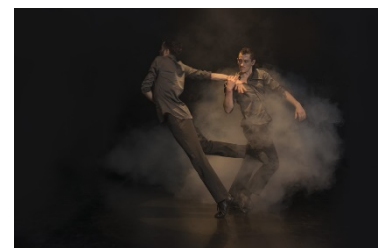

If I arrive at the Clark Studio Theater lobby early, I can use the restroom or I can eat any snacks I have before I enter the theater. No food is allowed in the theater.

Then, when the house opens, I'll show the ushers my ticket and they will hand me a program for the performance. I can sit in any open seat in the theater because it's general admission.

I will watch the dancers and projections. The music and projections may have some loud or sudden moments, and I can ask for headphones if I need them.

I will do my best to sit quietly during the performance. If I need a break or need to use the bathroom, I will ask an usher to leave the show and come back

Last, when the performance is over, I will applaud and say goodbye!

LC Kids

9

Sunday, November 4th at 11am

Rose Building

9

Clark Studio Theater

Photo © Rosalie O'Connor

Ballet

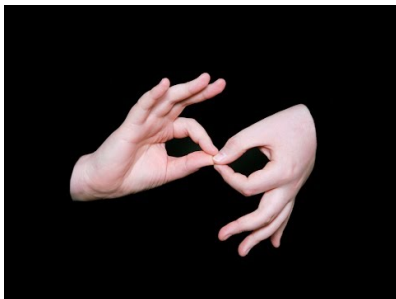

Lincoln Center

Lights

Sign Language

Piano

Applause

