Schedule & Map

Lincoln Center's 60th Anniversary

BLOCK PARTY

Saturday, May 4, 2019

10:00 am–2:30 pm

ACCESSIBILITY

The atmosphere at the Block Party is celebratory, relaxed, and suitable for most audiences. Sensory supports (noise-cancelling headphones and fidgets) are available to borrow at the Accessibility table on Hearst Plaza, and guests are welcome to take a break in our quiet space on the Lincoln Center Theater balcony overlooking Amsterdam Avenue.

Accessible seat locations available in all seated venues. To request seating at outdoor venues, please visit the Accessibility table.

Assistive listening devices with headsets and neck loops are available at all Lincoln Center venues. To request one, please see venue staff upon arrival. For outdoor events, visit the Accessibility table.

Large print and Braille schedules and maps are available at the Accessibility table on Hearst Plaza. Tactile models are available at Tour Guide Stations.

For more information about accessibility or to request an accommodation, please contact access@lincolncenter.org or 212.875.5375.

RESTROOMS

Public restrooms are available for the duration of this event in David Geffen Hall and on the concourse level under the Metropolitan Opera House. Changing tables are available in the restrooms at the David Rubenstein Atrium, the Rose Building, and on the concourse level under the Metropolitan Opera House (accessible by elevator outside the David H. Koch Theater). All restrooms are wheelchair-accessible.

TOUR GUIDE STATIONS

Stop by one of our five Tour Guide Stations across campus to learn more about the past, present, and future of Lincoln Center from one of our expert guides. Hear fun facts and insider stories about Lincoln Center's art and architecture, notable performances, and six decades of history.

ART-MAKING STATIONS

Flex your creative muscles with fun craft activities and art-making on the Balcony. Design your own 60th Anniversary commemorative tote bag (while supplies last), and join Lincoln Center Education's Family-Linc program to lend your talents to our Anniversary Mural! Celebrate the experiences from your own history that have brought you joy with Community Artists Lisa Green and Ivory Nunez-Medrano as they lead interactive movement and visual art activities for the whole family. Bilingual English/Spanish.

60TH ANNIVERSARY TICKET GIVEAWAY

Sign up for our newsletter to enter to win a pair of tickets to an upcoming performance at Lincoln Center in 2019! You could win tickets to the New York Philharmonic, Jazz at Lincoln Center, New York City Ballet, the Metropolitan Opera, Lincoln Center Theater, The Juilliard School, or the Mostly Mozart Festival!
